V. Discussion of Proposed Updated Mission and Name Change

a. Current Mission:

- i. The Board recommends and/or coordinates budgeted recreational activities, such as the Fourth of July entertainment and fireworks, the Bunny Brunch, Breakfast with Santa and other planned events for residents of College Park. Board members work with City, Maryland-National Capital Park and Planning Commission and University of Maryland staff to secure facilities and equipment for these events. Individuals interested in serving on the Recreation Board should have interest and expertise in entertainment, recreation, sports, social activities, organizational skills, media relations, and consensus building.

b. Proposed Mission:

- i. The City Events Advisory Board recommends, advises, and assists City staff on budgeted events and recreational activities that meet the interests of the City's diverse community of residents and additionally, attract visitors to the City. Individuals interested in serving on the Recreation Board should have interest and expertise in entertainment, recreation, social activities, community goals and needs, and community-building.
