The Low-Income Public Housing Program is a federally funded, locally administered rental assistance program that helps low-income families, the elderly, and individuals with disabilities afford decent and safe housing.

Housing Authority of the City of College Park affirmatively promotes equal opportunity and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, handicap, familial status or national origin in admission or access to benefits in its federally assisted programs and activities.

Persons wishing to make a statement during the public hearing or who wish to receive additional information should contact Michelle Johnson, Executive Director of the HACCP in writing by email at mcjohnson@haccp.agency by May 15, 2021.

Sign language and language translators will be made available upon request. Those requesting service should contact Michelle Johnson by email at mcjohnson@haccp.agency by May 15, 2021.

Copies of the proposed changes to Chapter “C” of the ACOP will be available at the Housing of the City of College Park Central Office, Attick Towers Lobby and on the Housing Authority’s website at HACCPMD.AGENCY.
