 - a. Bonnie McClellan moved to approve as written; seconded by Mary Anne Hakes

Old Business

3. Communication review and update
 - a. Communication blurbs; have been in publications thus far; Bonnie M. reports not seeing some of the information and expressed concern for more central advertising; Terry and Kiaisha report that MNCPPC will be mailing community meeting information to all CP residents.
 - b. Broadband survey approval request
 - i. Arelis moved to approve requested approval of broadband survey with a budget not to exceed $500; second by Mary Anne Hakes
4. Kickoff
 - a. Event Planning-
 - i. Robert Thurston met with Kevin Blackerby about May 13 concert on City Hall Plaza and suggested this be used as kickoff instead of stand-alone May 1 date previously discussed; Committee agreed
 1. Discussion about a banner; City would have to produce; Communications needs to have example about a logo which is unique to this effort
 - Robert Thurston suggested producing a short video on the AARP Livability Initiative for virtual exposure; discussion about how to execute; Terry S. indicated Communications needs to be involved in such an initiative
 - Event planning will be together as a committee; Kiaisha B. explained Open Meetings policy and that if a quorum is present meeting should be public
 - Robert T. suggested that committee discuss whether or not another meeting before March 28 is needed for event planning purposes; group discussed that events and communications should be consulted before group schedules an extra meeting

New Business

5. Community Meeting

- a. planning – Monday March 14th
- i. Terry S. updated that a flyer is not yet complete and was promised by today (Monday, 2/28/22); reported that Kiaisha B. and Terry S. have participated in planning meetings
- MNCPPC will be mailing a postcard to College Park
 - flyer, when completed will be available to all when complete
 - Eventbrite will be used for registration
 - Meeting will be simultaneously translated in Spanish; Arelis P. noted that Attick Towers' population is 30% Korean and Korean language translation would be helpful
 - Terry S. suggested 'watch parties' at housing locations; proposed agenda was reviewed; small break out groups proposed during event; committee can help with promotion once materials are completed.
 - Bonnie M. asked if she should still invite Hyattsville Aging in Place to a meeting; group discussed waiting on this for now
 - Terry S. updated on talks with Habitat for Humanity to fund initiatives for home upgrades and repairs to homes in College Park.

Discussion: AARP Challenge Grant: deadline 3/22/2022

- 12–18-month outcomes
- is offered every year
- Bonnie M. discussed she was inclined to consider it more for next year as the initiative continues to develop
